Poor soul! He has no plan of his own on any subject.

Matt Foster, defeated candidate for mayor of Kansas City and a political puppet of the Kansas City Star, has no faith in his contest to oust Mayor Cowgill from the office otherwise he would be willing to subscribe to Mayor Cowgill's proposition that the loser pay all the costs of the contest.

DEMOCRATS NAME
HANFORD BRUNK FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Mr. C. H. A. Brunk has recently informed the Democratic County Committee that on account of personal business matters, which have unexpectedly arisen and which demand his personal attention, he will be unable to give the proper amount of time to the campaign and therefore in fairness to himself and the Party he cannot make the race for representative. At a meeting held on October 4th, the Committee, to fill the vacancy on the ticket, unanimously selected Mr. Hanford Brunk of Lexington, and Mr. Brunk has accepted and begun his campaign.

Mr. Brunk was born at Jefferson City, Mo., and is thirty-eight years old. He comes from a family of Mississippi and Kentucky Democrats. He married a Cooper County Democrat. Mr. Brunk was educated in the public schools at Jefferson City. Since 1915 he has been in business in Lexington and is known as a wide-awake, aggressive, up-to-date business man; he has a wide circle of friends and acquaintances extending all over the county. Mr. Brunk is a life-long Democrat and has given special attention to public questions. He will make a thorough and intensive campaign, devoting all his time to the work, and if elected will represent his constituents in a most creditable and acceptable manner.

"When the front porch campaign came to an end and the Senatorial candidate appeared in Baltimore, a citizen of America arose in his place and said, 'I should like to ask you, Sir, whether you are going to scrap the League of Nations,' the Senatorial candidate replied, 'I did not believe when I came into the State of Maryland that I would be visited with a discourtesy.'"

Dr. C. A. Phillips of Warrensburg, met his class in Extension Work Friday night at the High School Auditorium. Five new members were added to the class. They were Misses Nina L. Willis, Margaret Yates, Elizabeth Ashurst, Mary D. Wilson and Verna Owens. Owing to the District Teachers' meeting that will be held in Warrensburg Oct. 15th, the next meeting of the class in Lexington will be held Oct. 22.

The issues of the present campaign with the Republican leaders simmered down to the last analysis are "Slander and We Want the Offices." They dare not give an honest interpretation of the League of Nations; they dare not tell the truth about their campaign fund; they dare not tell the truth about the great constructive measures enacted under a Democratic administration, such as the Federal Reserve Act, the Shipping bill, the Child Labor Law, etc. All they seem to care to do is to vilify President Wilson.

Republican speakers are quoting Germans in Coblenz as saying that they "lost the war but would win the peace." Those Germans must be banking on the election of Senator Harding. There will be no "winning of peace" for Germany if Governor Cox is elected for then the Versailles Treaty will be enforced to the letter. Senator Harding has said that he favored scrapping the Versailles Treaty, and that means that the United States will be in no better position than Germany. Do you want a separate peace with Germany?

The people who own farms and city homes in Missouri will hardly vote for George E. Hackman, Republican candidate for State Auditor in view of his past record in voting to enormously increase the assessed valuation of farms and city property, as recommended by the discredited old state tax commission—the body that was kicked out of office by the last legislature. Mr. Hackman was a member of the state board of equalization during the brief life of the old tax commission and its efforts to enormously increase the taxes on the farms and city homes, and he voted to support the commission. That he did not succeed in fastening enormous tax burdens on the people of the state, was no fault on his part. He did the best he could and all he could do. The owners of farms and city homes will remember Mr. Hackman November 2, and they will see to it that he is retired to private life.

Just What She Needed.

"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets some time ago and they proved to be just what I needed," writes Mrs. Volta Bankson, Chillicothe, Mo. "They not only relieved me of indigestion but toned up my liver and rid me of backache and dizziness that I had been subject to for some time. They did me a world of good and I will always speak a good word for them."

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—"

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

At all druggists.

SENATOR SPENCER
REFORMER IN SPOTS

Reveals Hypocrisy in Letter to St. Louis Republican

Senator Selden P. Spencer, Republican, candidate for re-election, exposes his insincerity in election reforms, inspired by "one of the owners of the Kansas City Star" in a letter to John Schmoll, a Republican boss of St. Louis. The letter was made public by R. E. O'Malley, Democratic election commissioner of Kansas City, and should be read by ever voter in Missouri.

The letter;
UNITED STATES SENATE
Committee on Indian Affairs
February 26, 1919.

Hon John Schmoll,
Department of Public Works,
St. Louis, Missouri.

Dear John:
I have been talking this morning with one of the owners of the Kansas City Star concerning the situation in Kansas City. I agree with him that politically Kansas City is the danger spot of Missouri and that if we could get anything like a fair deal in Kansas City we would elect a Governor and the entire State ticket and carry the ticket for the Presidential nominee in 1920.

He seems to think that the legislation that has been proposed by the Republican members of the Board of Election Commissioners of Kansas City will help a lot in Kansas City. I do not think we would want some of it in St. Louis, but for Kansas City they ought best to know their situation.

He feels that the only chance of getting legislation through is to pass it in the House of Representatives which ought not to be difficult and then caucus on the matter and to tell the Democratic members from Kansas City in the Senate that they need not expect to get any increases in salaries for Kansas City offices about which they are most anxious, unless they pass fair election laws applicable to Kansas City.

I told him frankly that no man could explain the matter to the St. Louis delegation better than yourself, and that I would write to you about it. I hope I may be in St. Louis before long and we can talk the matter over, because I am sure we both agree as to the real strategy of doing something in Kansas City.

Cordially yours,
(Signed) Selden P. Spencer

On reading this letter you will at once discover the conspiracy of the Kansas City Star to create a false sentiment with respect to elections in Kansas City, and that the Star's interest in honest elections is purely selfish, and not, as many have been led to believe, founded upon facts.

Despondency.

Sufferers from indigestion are apt to become discouraged and feel that complete recovery is not to be hoped for. No one could make a greater mistake. Hundreds have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and can now eat anything that they crave. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you have not tried them do so at once.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. McFadden returned Thursday evening from a two months' trip to the Pacific coast.

The Best Advertisement.

The best advertisement any merchant can have is a satisfied customer. No greater recommendation can be given an article than the following by E. B. Milburn, Prop., Guion Drug Store, Guion, Ark. "We have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and have always found that it gives perfect satisfaction."
